Kayaking the World's Deepest Fjord Lake!!

What an adventure!

Amazing Paddling, Wildlife and Nature in the Heart of the Cariboo Mountains

Over 2300 feet deep at its deepest point with over 360 miles of shoreline and overall length of over 80 miles, this natural wilderness lake, Quesnel Lake, is the heart of the Cariboo Mountains. A tri-armed glacial made lake, it is rich with wildlife, birds, rare ecosystems including rare ancient cedar hemlock rainforest and spectacular mountain scenery. You will feel the freedom and exhilaration just like historical explorers, Jules Quesnel and Simon Fraser's early 1800's party, as you breathe in the fresh pure mountain air.

A most exhilarating incredible and amazing paddling adventure. With the magnificent Cariboo Mountains as your backdrop explore along the 360 miles of shoreline ranging from the rare ancient interior rainforest to the high craggy walls of Quesnel Lake's east arm where mountain goats balance precariously above the clear deep waters. Watch grizzlies and black bears amble along the shores in search of fish, delectable berries, juicy plant treats and other bear delicacies. Watch for moose, mountain caribou, deer, wolf, otters and a huge variety of birds including eagles, osprey, loons and other waterfowl, kingfishers and songbirds. Explore the rare ancient interior rainforest with trees over 1000 years old. The lake also hosts a unique strain of large rainbow trout providing worldclass fishing and one of the largest sockeye salmon runs in the province. It's a magical nature lover's dream adventure!

- An amazing Kayaking adventure with plenty of opportunity for shoreline adventures and hikes into the rare ancient interior rainforest.
- Explore unique ecosystems - Ancient forests and wetlands (1000 year old western red cedars in this rare and unique interior rainforest) including the rare ancient interior rainforest and old growth cedar-hemlock forests with trees over 1000 years old.
- Shoreline wildlife viewing (grizzly, black bear, mountain goat, moose, Mountain Caribou, wolf, mule deer, lynx, wolverine) as you paddle.
- Always in bear country, summer sightings are very common
- Wildlife calling
- Wildlife tracking
- Birding (eagles, osprey, herons, mountain dwellers, migratory birds)
- The wilderness traveler's paradise and a photographer's dream

Our professional certified guides ensure your safety on Quesnel Lake, which can go from docile pond water to the excitement of witnessing an exquisite brilliant rainbow after a passing storm. Our guides will see you safely through with expertise, caring concern and good humor. You will enjoy their stories and extensive knowledge of the history, ecology and flora and fauna of the region. This kayaking tour is about thrilling adventure, peaceful serenity on the water, memorable moments in nature and lifetime memories.

Come and experience a wilderness adventure like no other. We provide all kayaking and camping equipment for your tour whether it is a one day or multi-day adventure. On multi-day tours you will camp out on one of the beautiful beaches of Quesnel Lake where you will be treated to our own unique hearty campfire cuisine – all home made from locally sourced ingredients.

Your day begins with an early hearty breakfast at our lodge. Your guides will provide an orientation and teaching session to ensure you are familiar with your kayak and paddling techniques to ensure your paddling confidence, comfort and safety. And so the adventure begins!

Multi-day adventures can be as short as an overnight paddling trip or as long as 7 to 10 days as you explore the length and breadth of Quesnel Lake and its natural history. This is an ideal adventure trip and photographic safari for those who love to get away from it all in pure undisturbed wilderness and nature. This is an ideal family or couples adventure where you have plenty of peace, solitude and endless nature.
